BUSINESS AND TECHNOLOGY

Due to the ministerial decision of not offering full degree programmes taught in English at Business Academies and University Colleges in Denmark, our institution will not have an offer for exchange students at the Business and Technology department for the Autumn semester 2023.

We are working on developing a new offer for the Business and Technology department for 2024.

You can read more about all the offers mentioned above on our online Course Catalogue. Please note that there may be limited spots on some of the above mentioned offers.

NOMINATION AND APPLICATION PROCEDURE

All exchange students for STUDIES (Theoretical offers) must be nominated via e-mail to international@ucl.dk no later than 15 April 2023. (Not relevant for students applying for a placement/traineeship).

Note that a nomination does not guarantee automatic admission at UCL. All applications will be assessed after the application deadline.

The nomination e-mail must include the following information for each student:

- Full name
- Email address
- Start period: for example "Autumn 2023"

After the nomination, we will contact the nominated student directly and provide more information about the application procedure. It is not possible to copy your staff in our emails to students.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

All incoming exchange students applying for one or more theoretical courses taught in English at university colleges must present proof of English language proficiency (Not relevant for traineeship).

The accepted certificates and corresponding minimum score are the following:

- IELTS: Minimum score: 6.5
- TOEFL internet-based test: Minimum score: 83
- Cambridge ESOL examinations: Advanced/CAE or Proficiency/CPE - Grade: C, B or A
- Cambridge ESOL examinations First Certificate: Grade: A
- Oxford Online Placement test: Minimum score: 75 overall + 75 in each subtest
- Erasmus Online Language Support (OLS): Score B2

The submitted certificates must not be older than 3 years to be considered valid.

If applicants do not upload the required documentation, they will be asked to complete an online language test issued by UCL. We may also choose to invite applicants to an online interview to further assess their language skills. The minimum score for each certificate is indicated in the single offers in our course catalogue.
